About The Men's Regional: Top-seed and No. 4-ranked Armstrong Atlantic is on a roll, winning eight straight matches, including the PBC Tournament for the first time in school history .. Shaw earns its first NCAA bid after snapping Johnson C. Smith's six-year CIAA Tournament win streak ... GC&SU makes its second straight appearance and seventh overall. AASU head coach Simon Earnshaw played collegiately at GC&SU ... Francis Marion is ranked No. 22 but its five losses this season have been by 5-4 scores to nationally-ranked opponents ... National rankings of the top singles players in the field: FMU's Kevin Taylor is No. 13, while GC&SU's Neil Scantlebury is No. 20. AASU's Robert Jendelund is No. 50. In doubles, the AASU team of Jendelund and Dale White are No. 8, while the GC&SU team of Scantlebury and Rodrigo Yamauti are No. 16 and the FMU team of Chatwinder Singh and Taylor are No. 17. About The Women's Regional: Top-seed and No. 2-ranked Armstrong Atlantic recently completed its second consecutive undefeated regular season at 24-0. The Lady Pirates have not lost a match at home since March 13, 2003, a span of 23 consecutive matches ... Fayetteville State won its fourth straight CIAA championship in a tiebreaker over Shaw University and is 63-1 in CIAA play since 2002 ... USC Upstate finished in a three-way tie for third place in the Peach Belt Conference, but defeated first-round opponent GC&SU twice during the season - a 5-3 win in Milledgeville on March 28 and a 5-4 win in the first round of the PBC Championships on April 14 ... National rankings of the top singles players in the field: AASU's Luisa Cowper, the PBC Player of the Year, is No. 4, while USC Upstate's Mariana Melo is No. 20 and GC&SU's Anna Shchupak is No. 34. In doubles, the AASU team of Cowper and Laura Peaty is No. 4 ... This is the fifth straight year that Armstrong Atlantic has hosted a women's regional, and the men are hosting their first regional since the 2000 season ... The other Mid-Atlantic region sites are at Columbus State (women) and USC Upstate (men).
