NOTES

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad compiled a 16-20 overall record and a 5-5 mark in the Peach Belt Conference in 2007, finishing in the top half of the league standings for an eighth straight season.

Head coach Alan Segal, the all-time winningest coach in AASU volleyball history with 273 wins, resigned in March to become the assistant coach at Alabama-Birmingham. In his place, AASU hired USC Aiken head coach Will Condon to take over the program.

Several top performances highlighted the 2007 season for the Pirates. Junior outside hitter Gwen Clarke earned All-PBC honors for the first time in her career for hitting .202 with 298 kills. Junior middle hitter Allyson Ray led the Pirates in hitting with a .256 average, ranking sixth in the Peach Belt, while also collecting .88 blocks per game, ranking 8th in the league.

Junior Nicole Yates set the single-season digs record at AASU with 572, breaking the mark of 440 set by Christina Flores in 2004. Yates' 4.12 digs per game is also a school record and ranked 5th in the PBC.

The Pirates said goodbye to two seniors in 2007 who wrapped up their playing careers. Senior Kassi Kixmiller put together a career season, setting highs in kills (148) and blocks (74) while ranking 10th in the PBC in blocking at .79 per game. She was also named to the PBC All-Sportsmanship team. Senior Stacia McCoy finished her career 667 digs and 70 service aces in 311 career games played. Senior Rindy Vidovich had her final season cut short just eight matches in during AASU's trip to Alaska and received a medical redshirt, granting her an extra year of eligibility.
