AASU SOCCER CAMP PHILOSOPHY

The Armstrong Atlantic summer soccer camp program stresses individual technical, tactical and physical development in an excellent learning environment. Players will improve fundamental skills while being challenged to learn more advanced aspects of the game. Campers will be challenged while receiving positive reinforcement during various activities related to the sport of soccer. Emphasis will be on the positive aspects of the camper’s performance to ensure that every participant gets a return for their efforts. Sample Activities:

- Fitness Activities to improve flexibility, agility, quickness, strength, power and footwork.
- Technical Training to improve first touch, the preparation of the ball, dribbling, shooting and passing.
- 1v1 play with emphasis on technique and decision making under pressure.
- Group play to help the development of group tactics in attacking and defending.
- Small sides and large sides games to give players the opportunity to put what they learned into practice.

4v4 CAMP
June 16-20, Ages 8-12, Boys & Girls
Emphasis on technical skills and small group tactical training, followed by 4 vs 4 games. 4v4 is a half day camp. All day option is available in conjunction with AASU’s All Sports Camp for the afternoon session.
