The Pirates captured the 2000-2001 PBC Championship
The second season of the Jeff Burkhamer era at Armstrong Atlantic State begins with a lot of promise.

Part of that stems from the performance of the 2002-03 squad that won six of its final seven games heading into the Peach Belt Conference tournament, including three wins over Top 25-ranked clubs.

Another part comes from an outstanding recruiting class that brings in seven talented players to the program that already returns seven players, including first-team All-PBC forward Daryl Williams.

Finally, the stability of a program that had seen three coaches in three seasons will help the Pirates continue towards their goal of returning to the top of the Peach Belt Conference.

Burkhamer’s second season will begin by relying heavily on its top two scorers from 2002-03, senior forwards Daryl Williams (6-5, 200, Clearwater, Fla.) and Brian Bain (6-4, 210, Nassau, the Bahamas). Both players look forward to moving back to their natural positions on the court after spending most of last season playing out of position due to the lack of height on the Pirates’ squad. A natural small forward, Williams still averaged a team-leading 15.7 points per game at the power forward position last season. Williams should be able to score from the perimeter or from the paint this season, depending on matchups. Bain will have the flexibility to play either wing position this year and will be counted on to shoot from the perimeter or use his exceptional quickness to drive to the rim.

Another returning player for the Pirates is four-year senior guard Justin Wood (6-1, 200, Midland, Mich.). The former walk-on, who started the first 24 games of last season before suffering a broken leg against Columbus State, has fully recovered and is expected to bring his hard work and tenacious defense to the court for the Pirates in 2003-04.

Senior guard Tim Brewer (6-0, 205, Columbus, Ohio) started the final four games of the season in place of Wood and returns as one of the Pirates’ leading three-point shooters. Brewer hit 39.6 percent of his treys last season and should be one of AASU’s top shooters again this year.

After taking a year off to concentrate on academics, senior swingman Jason Sanders (6-3, 190, Ft. Walton Beach, Fla.) returns to play his final year for the Pirates this season. Sanders averaged 5.4 points and 2.3 rebounds in 21 starts in 2001-02 and will be asked to run the team from the point guard position.

The final returning senior for coach Burkhamer is forward Scott Mattingly (6-6, 215, Dexter, Mo.). The hard-nosed Mattingly averaged 4.3 points off the bench for the Pirates last season and will continue to contribute offensively and defensively in the frontcourt this season.

Sophomore forward Jerard Manning (6-5, 190, Savannah, Ga.) saw extensive time late in the season and should continue to develop his scoring stroke.
With the tallest player on the Pirates’ roster last season standing at 6’7”, AASU’s biggest recruiting concern was size. Five of the Pirates’ seven newcomers are 6’6” or taller, starting with senior forward/center Tim Black (6-8, 220, Hinesville, Ga.), who transfers to AASU after three seasons at Arkansas Tech, where he scored 704 points in three seasons.

Junior forward George Bush (6-6, 240, Charleston, S.C.) joins the Pirates from Spartanburg Methodist JC, where he was an all-conference performer. Bush will be a tough physical presence inside the paint that the Pirates lacked last season and should help AASU’s rebounding, which ranked 11th in the league last year.

Sophomore forward Jared Muse (6-5, 225, Jacksonville, Fla.) is a transfer from Naval Academy Preparatory in Annapolis, Md., who brings athleticism and a tremendous work ethic to the team.

The rest of the Pirates’ newcomers are freshmen, but are talented enough to contribute immediately. Freshman forward Bryan Taylor (6-8, 240, Timmonsville, S.C.) was an All-State performer in South Carolina where he averaged 25 points, 13 rebounds and four blocked shots as a senior.

Freshman center Nick Bloemhof (6-10, 205, Meppel, the Netherlands) is a former member of the Dutch junior national team and might be the best pure three-point shooter on the squad already.

The final two freshmen are local products who stayed home to play for the Pirates. Freshman guard Jermaine Wilkerson (6-0, 170, Claxton, Ga.) led Claxton HS to the Georgia Final Four last year. Wilkerson is a tremendous athlete and will be learning the point guard position this year. Freshman forward Jimmy Fanning (6-9, 200, Hilton Head, S.C.) averaged 16 points and 11 rebounds as a senior and earned SCISA All-State honors as well.

Again the Pirates will have a tough schedule, facing a 16-game league slate and non-conference games against NCAA Tournament participants such as Eckerd, Presbyterian and Lenoir-Rhyne. AASU hosts both Eckerd and Lenoir-Rhyne in its annual Christmas Classic tournament on Dec. 19-20. AASU also has non-conference games against Paine, Clark Atlanta and Fayetteville State. The Pirates open the 2003-04 season by hosting South Atlantic Region finalist Presbyterian on Saturday, November 15, at 7:00 p.m.

The Peach Belt Conference coaches have picked Armstrong Atlantic State to finish tied for fourth in the league with Augusta State. Defending PBC champion Columbus State is picked to finish first, followed by Kennesaw State and Clayton State. AASU was one of only three schools to receive a first-place vote in the poll.

As voted on by the PBC Men’s Coaches; Coaches could not vote for own team.
AASU has won two Peach Belt Conference Championships

“The mediocre coach tells;
The good coach explains;
The superior coach demonstrates;
The great coach inspires.”

“Someone once said that the most important aspect of coaching is teaching. That is not true. Everyone teaches. The most important aspect of coaching is making sure that what is taught is learned.”

“Good coaching may be defined as the developing of character, personality and habits of players, plus the efficient teaching of fundamentals and team play.”
Jeff Burkhamer enters his second season as head men’s basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State University. Burkhamer directed a Pirates’ squad whose tallest player was 6’7” and, after a 1-7 start, finished the season with a 12-7 record in the Peach Belt, good for fourth place, and a 14-14 overall mark. The Pirates went 3-1 against two nationally-ranked clubs in 2002-03 - conference rivals Columbus State and Kennesaw State - and advanced to the Peach Belt Conference Quarterfinals.

Burkhamer joined AASU as its ninth head men’s basketball coach on June 10, 2002. A native of Williamstown, West Virginia, Burkhamer had been at Marshall University for four seasons under head coach Greg White, first as an assistant coach and then, in 2001-2002, as associate head coach. While at Marshall, Burkhamer helped the Thundering Herd to a 70-44 record in four seasons in Mid-American Conference play.

Prior to joining Marshall, Burkhamer served as the head coach at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Fla., leading the Saints to two Mid-Florida Conference titles. He earned National Junior College Coach of the Year honors by College Sport Magazine in 1995-96 as the Saints set a school record with 28 wins and also won 21 straight games to begin the season, gaining a No. 5 NJCAA national ranking and finishing the year with a 28-4 record. In four seasons, the Saints went 97-31 under Coach Burkhamer.

Burkhamer also served as an assistant coach for three seasons in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA), the developmental league of the NBA, with the Grand Rapids Hoops before leading the Santa Fe program and previously served as a head coach at North Greenville College in Tigerville, S.C., where he went 58-10 in two seasons and earned NJCAA Region 10 Coach of the Year honors twice from 1989-1991.

A graduate of Alderson-Broaddus College in Philippi, West Virginia, Burkhamer was a four-year letterman for the Battlers in basketball and baseball and holds the school’s all-time assist mark with 646. Burkhamer was inducted into the Battler Hall of Fame in 2001. He graduated from Alderson-Broaddus with a bachelor’s degree in secondary education in 1984 and earned his master’s degree in health and physical education from Morehead State in 1989. He started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Winthrop University in 1984-85, the moved to Charleston Southern University (1985-87) and Morehead State University (1987-89).

Burkhamer is no stranger to the Coastal Empire area as he was on the staff at Charleston Southern in 1986-87 when the Buccaneers won the first two Big South Conference Championships were held in Savannah, Ga. Charleston Southern played Armstrong State during conference play that season.

Burkhamer is married to the former Diane Depler of Stow, Ohio, and the couple have two children - Melissa (12) and Lindsey (7).

Jeff Burkhamer became AASU’s ninth head coach on June 10, 2002.
What They’re Saying About AASU Head Coach Jeff Burkhamer . . .

“Coach Burkhamer is fair, consistent and dedicated to helping each of us in all aspects of our college experience. Coach Burkhamer is concerned about us being successful in the game of basketball, but even more importantly, the game of life.”

- Brian Bain, Current Pirate Player

“Coach Burkhamer was instrumental in my development as a player. His attention to detail in my individual workouts helped raise my skill level to new heights each year. Coach B. pushed me every day to become a better player, a better student and a better person. He helped prepare me for life in the NBA.”

- Tamar Slay, Former Player And Current NJ Nets Player

“I see the basketball program becoming a dominant power in the Peach Belt Conference and in the region under the leadership of Coach Burkhamer. Everything that is needed to become a powerhouse is in place - a solid coaching staff, quality academics, great facilities, brand new housing/apartments and a beautiful campus and city. My only regret is only getting to play for Coach Burkhamer for one season.”

- David Pisarcik, Former Pirate Player for Coach Burkhamer

“Coach Burkhamer is an excellent communicator and basketball strategist. He coached me during the most productive phase of my career. He has been very supportive of me personally through all my highs and lows. Coach Burkhamer is not only a former coach but someone that I’m proud to call a FRIEND.”

- Gerald Madkins, Current NY Knicks scout, former CBA Rookie of the Year/Player for the Grand Rapids Hoops
Steve Ray
Assistant Men’s Basketball Coach

Steve Ray begins his fourth season on the Armstrong Atlantic State men’s basketball staff as a Pirates’ assistant coach. Promoted from his graduate assistant coaching position in 2001, Ray will be in his seventh year at AASU following a stellar two-year playing career for the Pirates from 1997-1999.

Ray earned his bachelor’s degree in English communications in 2000 from AASU and recently completed his Master’s degree in public health from AASU.

Ray’s playing career took him from Penn Valley CC in Kansas City, Mo., where he helped the Scouts to the 1995-96 NJCAA National Championship, to the Pirates, where he set AASU marks for three-point shooting, hitting 163 of 379 shots (43%). At Penn Valley, Ray was a two-time first-team All-Region selection and earned NJCAA All-Tournament and Academic All-America honors. While at AASU, Ray was the 1999 President’s Cup award winner, given to the top Pirate student-athlete.

Ray will assist head coach Jeff Burkhamer in all aspects of the basketball program in 2003-04. He was recently married to former AASU volleyball standout and current head athletic trainer Mylene Benito, and together the couple live in Savannah.

Coach Burkhamer: “Steve Ray is a valuable asset to our basketball program. His knowledge of our university, the surrounding area and the Peach Belt Conference made my transition to AASU an easy one. Steve is a former Pirate player and was the President’s Cup recipient at AASU, given to the top student-athlete at the school each year. He can tell recruits exactly what it is like to attend AASU because he knows first hand what its like to be a Pirate student-athlete. Steve does an outstanding job on the court with our players and is very involved on campus with academics, financial aid and admissions. Steve is asked to perform a variety of duties in our program with an emphasis on recruiting. Steve has a very good understanding of what needs to be done in all areas of the program.”

Travis Priddy
Assistant Men’s Basketball Coach

Travis Priddy begins his second year with the AASU men’s basketball program in 2003-04, serving as a Pirates assistant coach.

A 1998 graduate of West Virginia State, Priddy began his coaching career as the head coach of the Teays Valley, W. Va., AAU squad and moved into the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Winfield HS from 1996 to 2000.

The Charleston, W. Va., native then served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, West Virginia State, in 2000-2001, and moved to Hastings College as the top assistant coach for the Broncos in 2001-02 before joining the Pirates.

Priddy, 30, is single and resides in Savannah.

Coach Burkhamer: “I’ve known Travis Priddy for a number of years. Travis is a West Virginia native and has served as a coach at my summer basketball camp. Travis is very involved on the court with our players and has been instrumental in the promotion of our basketball program. Academic development, videotape breakdown and recruiting are just a few of the duties that he is involved with at AASU. His work ethic and understanding of the game make him very marketable once he finishes his master’s degree at the end of the year.”

Ray hit 43 percent of his 3-point shots in two years with AASU

Program Goals and Objectives

- To graduate 100% of our student-athletes.
- To win the regular season and tournament championships.
- To have the most productive recruiting class in the region and conference.
- To instill life skills in our student-athletes.
- To prepare our athletes academically, athletically and socially for life after graduation/basketball.

The Pirates Game Plan

The Armstrong Atlantic State University men’s basketball program has entered a new era under the leadership of coach Jeff Burkhamer. “We are looking for fine young men with the desire, work ethic and ability to move our program to national prominence in NCAA basketball in the years ahead.”

Tough man-to-man pressure defense and an uptempo fast-breaking style offense will characterize the Pirates style of play in 2003-04. Burkhamer adds, “Our success will depend on how quickly our players adjust to our system of play and their ability to come together as a close-knit team.”

We will build a successful program at AASU with good people. We have high expectations of our players as students, as role models in public and as competitors on the court. Our goals are higher than ten feet!”

FUN FACTS
Enjoys deep sea fishing ... Chipper Jones and Tim Duncan are favorite sports personalities ... Would like to pursue a career in criminal justice.

Thoughts on Pirate Basketball: “This basketball program has tremendous potential and will continue to achieve at a high level.”

#44 Bryan Taylor
Freshman Forward
6-8 • 240 • Timmonsville, S.C. • Timmonsville HS

HIGH SCHOOL
Averaged 25 points, 13 rebounds and 4 blocks as a senior at Timmonsville HS ... Earned All-Region, All-State and WPDE-TV All-Hoop Zone honors as a senior, leading the Whirlwinds to the State Tournament ... Named to North-South All-Star Team by the South Carolina Coaches’ Association.

PERSONAL
Born Bryan Taylor on January 7, 1985, in Charleston, S.C. ... Hometown is Timmonsville ... Son of James and Sarah Taylor ... Majoring in engineering.

COACH BURKHAMER SAYS
“Bryan Taylor put up monster numbers in high school. We think he will be an outstanding addition as a freshman. Bryan adds depth in the post and can play either post position effectively. Bryan can score to 16 feet, rebounds in a crowd and gives us another big body inside. Bryan will be counted on this year to play important minutes. We expect big things from him as a freshman and throughout his career.”

FUN FACTS
Lists Shawn Marion as a favorite sports personality ... Biggest role model is his father and his mother is the person he admires the most.

Thoughts on Pirate Basketball: “I love it!”

Taylor was a three-time team MVP at Timmonsville HS
Freshman Jermaine Wilkerson

#32 Jermaine Wilkerson
Freshman Guard
6-0 • 170 • Claxton, Ga. • Claxton HS

HIGH SCHOOL

Two-time All-Region honoree at Claxton HS ... Led the Tigers to a Final Four appearance in 2002-03 ... Averaged 16 points a game as a junior, then 15 points and four assists a game as a senior ... Wendy’s High School Heisman nominee.

PERSONAL

Born Alton Jermaine Wilkerson on May 14, 1985, in Statesboro, Ga. ... Hometown is Claxton ... Son of Julian and Bernestine Wilkerson ... Brother, Jonathon (19), plays football at Georgia Southern ... Majoring in biology.

COACH BURKHAMER SAYS

“Jermaine is another local product that we feel will make an impact on the Pirate basketball program. Jermaine is a big-time athlete who can push the ball up the court in a hurry. Jermaine will play the point guard position primarily, but he can also play some off-guard if need be. Jermaine will also give us another perimeter defender that can put pressure on opposing guards.”

FUN FACTS

Enjoys working with computers ... Lists Rasheed Wallace and Michael Jordan as favorite sports personalities ... Would like to one day become a pharmacist.

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There’s something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah’s founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured “pocket parks” located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there’s an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of “laid back” approach to the world, a “rootedness” that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah “the most beautiful city in North America.”

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including “Glory,” “Forrest Gump,” “Something to Talk About,” “Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil” and the 2000 hit film “The Legend of Bagger Vance” starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast’s finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State’s campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it’s the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community’s educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university’s reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 6,500 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 15 years, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university’s growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include the Fine Arts Center, with a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002. This fall, the campus welcomes the second phase of Compass Point, an addition to the school’s first apartment complexes. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference’s basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year.

AASU sponsors eight intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. The Pirates have not finished below fourth in the league’s all-sports competition since joining the league and finished third in 2002-03, behind North Florida and Kennesaw State.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and nontraditional students. Sixty percent of AASU’s student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU’s enrollment is projected to top the 10,000 mark by 2010.

Academics

Armstrong Atlantic State University tries to keep the term “student-athlete” in perspective. At AASU, academic pursuits come first and athletics second. The Pirate coaching staff, along with the entire Athletic Department, continually works to help the student-athlete meet the challenges that they face on and off the playing surface.

Guidance is provided to help the student-athlete bridge the gap from college life to professional life in the working world. It is important that each young person is presented with the skills to make meaningful contributions to their communities.

Armstrong Atlantic State’s coaches have made a strong commitment to see that every student-athlete’s education is put first. The goal is to give every student-athlete the opportunity to complete their undergraduate degree and meet the challenges of the “real world.”

AASU offers 31 bachelor’s degree programs and 10 master’s degrees.
Dr. Thomas Z. Jones
University President

Thomas Z. Jones, the sixth president to serve at Armstrong Atlantic State University, begins his fourth year at AASU. Hired on August 1, 2000, Jones was selected by the Board of Regents and University System of Georgia Chancellor Stephen R. Portch after an exhaustive national search.

Dr. Jones served on the faculty and administration at Columbus State University, as its vice president for academic affairs from 1988-2000, prior to coming to Armstrong Atlantic State. A 30-year veteran of university teaching and administration, Dr. Jones has taught at Indiana State University, Emory and Henry College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology. While at West Virginia Tech, Dr. Jones served as the Westmoreland Professor of Mining, an endowed professorship, and vice president of academic affairs.

Dr. Jones received his bachelor’s degree in physics from Fairmont State College, his master of arts degree in geology from West Virginia University and his Ph.D in Geology from Miami (Ohio) University.

From 1980-1988, he owned and served as president of Technical Evaluation Consultants, Inc., a privately owned business specializing in providing scientific, technical and engineering services for business, industry, government agencies and the legal community.

Dr. Jones and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Matthew and Michael.

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher
Athletic Director

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher begins his eighth full year as the athletic director for Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Aenchbacher’s responsibilities include overseeing the entire athletic department and promoting Armstrong Atlantic State athletics in the community of Savannah.

Dr. Aenchbacher received his bachelor’s degree in physical education from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1979, where he was a standout student-athlete for the baseball team as a pitcher. He received his Master’s degree and Doctorate of Education from the University of Georgia.

Along with his student-athlete experience at AASU, Dr. Aenchbacher also coached the Pirate cross country teams for five years and started the first AASU men’s soccer team, which he coached for seven years.

During Dr. Aenchbacher’s tenure as athletic director, AASU’s athletic programs have had tremendous success in the classroom and on the playing field. Student-athletes at AASU have excelled in academics with 48 percent earning a 3.0 grade point average or better. The overall grade point average of AASU student-athletes is 2.87, higher than the overall institutional GPA. In 2002-03, the AASU athletic department sent seven of eight teams to the NCAA DII Championships, the best ratio in the nation. The Pirates also collected the third-most points per sport sponsored in the annual NACDA Director’s Cup competition, which tracks the performance of Division II schools in all sports. AASU accumulated its most Director’s Cup points ever (297) and averaged 37.1 points per sport, behind only Grand Valley State (MI) and BYU-Hawaii.

Dr. Aenchbacher has been married for 12 years to Michele and together they are the proud parents of two children, Jesse and Lainey.
AASU finished third in the PBC Commissioner’s Cup last season.
The Armstrong Atlantic State University’s athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region as well.

AASU’s Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000 square foot multipurpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a three-station computer lab; a 1,965 square foot weight training/fitness center with more than 30 Cybex machine exercise stations, stair climbers, treadmills, upright and semi-recumbent bike, elliptical trainer and a free weight area; four new classrooms and two 3,535 square foot activity areas.

AASU’s athletic teams play home events in a 4,000 seat arena that contains theatre-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

Dr. Spencer Wheeler

Team Physician

Dr. Spencer Wheeler is the medical director and team physician for Armstrong Atlantic’s athletic teams. Dr. Wheeler completed his medical school training at the Medical College of Georgia in 1985, and his orthopaedic training at the University of Florida. Wheeler served two sports medicine fellowships; one at Johns Hopkins Institute and one in Sydney, Australia. Dr. Wheeler served as the head of athletic care in Atlanta for the 1996 Summer Olympics.

Mylene Ray, ATC

Head Athletic Trainer

Mylene Ray begins her third season as the head athletic trainer for AASU. A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (N.A.T.A.), Ray’s responsibilities include the rehabilitation and prevention of injuries to AASU athletes, and assigning athletic training coverage for all practices and games of the Pirates eight intercollegiate athletic teams.

AASU has hosted Lenoir-Rhyne each of the last six seasons

The Office of Sports Communications at Armstrong Atlantic State University thank you for your interest in AASU men’s basketball. Should you need any further assistance in covering the Pirates during the 2003-2004 season, please do not hesitate to contact us:

Office of Sports Communications
Armstrong Atlantic State University
Chad Jackson, Director
11935 Abercorn Street
Savannah, GA 31419
Phone: (912) 961-3255
Fax: (912) 921-5571
email: jacksoch@mail.armstrong.edu

Thanks again for your coverage of the Pirates throughout the season.

Chad Jackson
Director of Sports Communications

Media Credentials

Media credentials for photo and press are not needed, however seating on press row is limited. Requests for press row seating must be made in advance to Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson via fax, email or phone at least two (2) days prior to each contest.

Radio Broadcasts

Opposing teams wishing to broadcast from Alumni Arena at the Armstrong Sports Center are welcome, however lines are limited. If you are planning on broadcasting an upcoming game, please contact Chad Jackson at least two (2) days prior to your contest.

Pre-Game Interviews

Requests for interviews with Armstrong Atlantic State players and coaches should be directed to Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson. Arrangements will be made for players to call media members if a phone interview is requested - it is the AASU Athletic Department policy not to publicize student-athlete’s home phone numbers.

Game Services

The Office of Sports Communications staff will furnish media representatives with game programs, pregame notes and statistics, in addition to halftime and final game statistics and play-by-play.

Press Area

The designated press area for Alumni Arena at the Armstrong Sports Center are on either side of the court. Seats are marked prior to each game and we ask that members of the media adhere to seating arrangements during the contest. Photo areas are at the baseline of either basket, but not directly behind the basket. The balconies above each basket are also accessible for photographers - an elevator is located at the southeast corner of the Arena.

Two press row phone lines are available for media members wishing to file from courtside. The numbers are (912) 921-5572 and (912) 921-5473. One phone will be provided on the officials’ side of the court for each contest.

Post-Game Interviews

The Armstrong Atlantic State men’s basketball locker rooms are closed to all media personnel. Head coach Jeff Burkhamer and requested players will be brought out for postgame interviews following a 10-minute cooling off period.

The Pirates have not had back-to-back sub-.500 seasons since ’88
New head coach Jeff Burkhamer’s first season at AASU may not seem memorable looking solely at the Pirates’ 14-14 final record, but a closer inspection of the season reveals perhaps one of the finest coaching jobs in any level of collegiate basketball in 2002-03.

Without a player taller than 6’7” and a brutal opening schedule that included five games against 2002-03 NCAA Tournament teams, the Pirates found ways to win and finished fourth in the Peach Belt Conference standings at 12-7, advancing to the PBC Tournament Quarterfinals for the second straight season.

The Pirates opened the season at Eckerd College in November and came within one basket of knocking off Elite Eight participant Queens (N.C.). Losses to NCAA Tournament teams Eckerd (twice), Presbyterian and Lenoir-Rhyne followed and, when the Pirates finished up their fall schedule, they sported a rough 1-7 mark heading into January and the Peach Belt Conference slate.

Head coach Jeff Burkhamer had his players turn their jerseys around backward at their first practice after Christmas, symbolizing his belief that the Pirates needed to turn their season around immediately. True to form, the Pirates used a suffocating defense to frustrate opponents and quickly racked up wins.

AASU won four of its first five games after Christmas and found themselves in the thick of the Peach Belt Conference race. The Pirates set a new school record on February 1, holding UNC Pembroke to a school-record 40 points in a 58-40 win over the Braves, then the Pirates picked up two wins over nationally-ranked foes when they defeated No. 10 Columbus State, 79-62, on February 22, then defeated No. 24 Kennesaw State, 63-57, on March 1.

AASU entered the Peach Belt Conference tournament as the No. 3 seed from the South Division and immediately knocked off UNC Pembroke, 67-59, in the first round, making it to the quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, the Pirates faced a hot USC Spartanburg squad that had defeated AASU twice in very close games during the regular season. AASU played valiantly but came up short, losing to the Rifles for a third time, 61-57, but ending the season with a .500 record after opening the year 1-7.

Junior Daryl Williams turned in a fine season as he became the first AASU player to earn first-team All-PBC honors since Robert Campbell in 1999-2001. Williams, a junior college transfer from Pasco Hernando CC, averaged 15.7 points and 6.6 rebounds per game, ranking in the top 10 in both categories in the league.

Senior Brian Bain also enjoyed a fine first season for the Pirates, averaging 14.3 points per game and capturing the Ashley Dearing cup by leading the Pirates in free-throw shooting. Bain, a former U-19 National Player of the Year in his native country of the Bahamas, scored 20 or more points five times in a one-month stretch for AASU.

Two seniors finished their playing careers for the Pirates in 2002-03 as Dave Pisarcik and Ian Jones each turned in fine seasons for AASU.

Pisarcik averaged 12.6 points and 4.8 rebounds per game and entered the AASU top 10 chart for free throws made in a season with 127 during the year. For his two-year career, Pisarcik averaged 10.4 points per game as a Pirate.

Senior Ian Jones took advantage of his opportunity to start as a senior and responded with his best season, averaging 5.7 points and 2.7 rebounds a game in 17 starts.

As well as setting a school record for the least amount of points given up in a single game, the Pirates also set school records for fewest total points given up in a season (1,741) and fewest points per game given up (62.2 ppg). AASU ranked 11th in NCAA Division II in scoring defense in 2002-03 as well.

* - Peach Belt Conference Games
- 2002 Eckerd College Classic (St. Petersburg, Fla.)
% - 2002 AASU/Chatham Orthopaedics Christmas Classic
$ - Peach Belt Conference Championships (Columbus, Ga.)
Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 13th season with 18 national championships and 16 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and began play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The PBC has seen continued success in all sports with national rankings and multiple NCAA appearances in every sport last season, including a national championship for the Columbus State baseball team and a national championship finals appearance by the Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Spartanburg. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton College & State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997, to bring the current membership to 12 institutions.

Former Augusta State basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference's first full-time commissioner in July of 1991. He established the conference office in Augusta, Ga., which houses the commissioner and his staff.

Dr. Thomas Hallman, president of the University of South Carolina at Aiken, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2003-04.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

Robert Campbell

Two-time Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year Robert Campbell made an assault on the all-time NCAA Division II steals record in 2000-01, collecting a school-record 113 thefts and finishing just four steals shy of the all-time mark, held at the time by Ornn Brown of Clarion. A two-time DII Bulletin All-America selection, Campbell finished his four-year career as the Pirates’ all-time leader in steals and games played and was the third leading scorer in school history, tallying 1,587 points.

The Dearing Cup

With a history as long as the existence of basketball at Armstrong, the Dearing Cup has become a symbol among the Pirate faithful for dedication, preparation and execution on the basketball court. Named for longtime Savannah and Armstrong Atlantic State basketball supporter Ashley Dearing, the Dearing Cup is awarded to the AASU player with the best free throw percentage each season. Listed below are the winners of the Dearing Cup - an award that has been given each of the past 49 years.

Last year, junior Brian Bain (right, pictured receiving the award from Ashley Dearing) captured the Dearing Cup by hitting 100 of his 137 free throws for an outstanding .730 free throw percentage. Bain ranked 10th in the Peach Belt Conference in that category and was the Pirates’ second-leading scorer, averaging 14.3 points per game and scoring 399 points on the season.

The list of former winners of the Ashley Dearing Cup reads as a who’s-who of Armstrong Atlantic State basketball - from AASU Athletic Hall of Famers Foy Ballance and Danny Sims to All-Americans Ike Williams and Danny Stell to current Savannah Country Day head boys basketball coach Mike Harner.

Dear Friends:

One of the goals of Armstrong Atlantic State University is to make every component of the university outstanding. This includes excellence in teaching, learning, scholarship and service.

AASU athletics is no exception. The record is clear in this regard. Our athletic teams and individual athletes are competing with great success at both the regional level in the Peach Belt Conference and at the NCAA Division II national level. There is no doubt that our coaches are recruiting and preparing true student-athletes. Our athletes perform well academically as well as athletically.

In order to sustain this record of excellence, we need your assistance. A nationally-prominent athletic program begins with community support. Please consider being one of AASU’s community supporters. I invite you to join the team and become a member of the Pirates Club.

This brochure provides valuable information about our booster club - what it is, its purpose, its goal, what your support will mean for our student-athletes and how you can become a member of the Pirate Team.

Please join the Pirate Team, be involved at our games and wear your Pirate gear with great pride!

Thank you,

Thomas Z. Jones
AASU President

What is the Pirates Club . . .

The Pirates Club is the booster club for all intercollegiate sports at Armstrong Atlantic State University. AASU is committed to excellence in the classroom and in athletic competition. With your enthusiastic support we have made tremendous improvements that benefit all of our student-athletes. By becoming a member of the Pirates Club, you would ensure that our university’s athletic teams would continue to compete at a high level. The Pirates Club is committed to the support of a quality athletic program. It is with your financial assistance that consistent Peach Belt Conference contenders can be built.

The purpose to the Pirates Club . . .

Our purpose is to provide a financial base supplemental to the athletic program’s normal operating budget, to increase interest in the athletic programs at AASU and to increase attendance at athletic competitions that are held on our campus.

The goal of the Pirates Club . . .

Our goal is to have an organization that supports AASU athletics! We want to enhance the development of intercollegiate sports on the AASU campus by increasing our membership and by building financial resources that will supplement each of our teams’ budgets.

Who contributes to the Pirates Club . . .

Anyone interested in the university and its athletic program. This would include alumni, faculty and staff, students, friends of AASU, Pirate fans and civic-minded people who recognize how much the athletic programs mean to the city and area. Join your friends and make this the best year ever for Armstrong athletics and the Pirates Club!

How do I join the Pirates Club . . .

Contact the AASU Athletic Department at (912) 927-5336 or visit the Pirate Club website at http://www.athletics.armstrong.edu/club.html for an application you can print out and mail in!

2002-03 AASU Athletics Highlights

- Seven of AASU’s eight intercollegiate athletics teams advanced to the NCAA Championships in 2002-03, the best ratio among Division II schools in the nation.
- Nine AASU student-athletes earned Division II All-America honors in 2002-03.
- AASU volleyball captured the school’s first-ever Peach Belt Conference tournament title in 2002.
- AASU Women’s Basketball captured the school’s first-ever Peach Belt Conference title, PBC Tournament title and NCAA Championships berth.
- AASU had three student-athletes earn Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year honors - Tishay Lewis (Women’s Basketball), Zsofia Golopencza (Women’s Tennis) and Katya Eronina (Softball).
- AASU Baseball captured its third Peach Belt Conference title and finished second in NCAA Division II in pitching with a 2.71 team earned-run average.
- Softball player Katya Eronina led NCAA Division II in earned-run average with a miniscule 0.36 ERA.
- AASU accumulated its most points ever in the NACDA Director’s Cup all-sports competition (297), ranking third in the country in points per sport with 37.1, behind only Grand Valley State and BYU-Hawaii.
